COMMENT SHEET

Ketchikan to Shelter Cove Road
Project No. 68405

The proposed Shelter Cove Road project is located between Harriet Hunt Lake and Shelter Cove within the Ketchikan Gateway Borough. Shelter Cove is on Carroll Inlet, 22 air miles northeast of the City of Ketchikan, Alaska.

The proposed project's preliminary purpose is to provide vehicle access to Shelter Cove allowing access to public and private lands in between Harriett Hunt Lake and Shelter Cove. Access would allow activities such as recreation, subsistence, tourism, logging, and other economic opportunities consistent with land use plans and polices as well as the 2008 Bond Language.
